Appeal of Decisions

The Women's Housing Company (WHC) aims to treat customers fairly at all times. However, we understand there may be occasions when you are not happy with a decision we have made. In these circumstances, we encourage you to lodge an appeal.

Appeals provide us with an opportunity to review decisions and to reflect on whether all relevant information was considered when making the original decision and if the decision was made in line with legislation and / or our policies.

Lodging an appeal against a decision we have made will not result in any form of retaliation or discrimination. You should feel safe and assured that you will be heard respectfully and professionally.

What is an Appeal?

An appeal is a request for a review of a decision made by the WHC to provide or not provide a service regarding your housing application, your tenancy or your property.

You have 30 days from the original decision date to lodge an appeal (except housing offers – must be lodged within 14 days of the offer).

Appeals are first reviewed internally. If the outcome of your appeal is still in dispute, the matter may then be appealed to the independent Housing Appeals Committee (HAC) by calling 1800 629 794 or visiting their website to lodge an online appeal www.hac.nsw.gov.au

How can I Lodge an Appeal?

During business hours, you can call our office on 9281 1764 or 1300 942 111 (if outside Sydney).

Email us Contact@womenshousingcompany.org

Send a letter to our office at Suite 901, Level 9, 418A Elizabeth Street, Surry Hills, NSW 2010.

You may request a meeting to speak with us in person. You can bring a friend or an advocate. We can arrange for an interpreter if required.

Assistance to Lodge an Appeal

We can assist you to lodge an appeal against a decision if required, for example, by explaining the process, arranging an appropriate support service or an interpreter.

External bodies can also provide assistance:

- Local Tenants' Advice and Advocacy Services listed on www.tenants.org.au
- Community Legal Centres listed on www.clcnsw.org.au
- NSW Fair Trading Information Centre, contactable by calling 133 220 or via www.fairtrading.nsw.gov.au

Which Decisions can I Appeal?

Social housing applicants and WHC tenants can appeal the following decisions:

- Eligibility for social housing, including priority assessment
- Removal from the NSW Housing Register
- Property entitlements, such as number of bedrooms, type of property
- Locational need for 'high demand' areas
- Offers of properties and the suitability of each offer (appeals lodged within 14 days)
- Eligibility for a housing transfer, including management transfers
- Need for modifications (for disability / medical reasons only)
- Approval for an alteration to your property
- Non-rent tenancy charges (e.g. rechargeable property repairs)
- Calculation of water usage charges
- Calculation, change or cancellation of a rent subsidy
- Permission to be absent from a property and rent calculation during absence
- Permission to have a pet
- Relocating tenants to other social housing at the expiry of a leasehold arrangement.

What Happens Next?

We will send you a letter or an email to confirm receipt of your appeal within 3 business days.

As part of our appeals review process, we may call you for clarification on the matter. We may be able to resolve your concerns by providing additional information.

How are Appeals Managed?

Any staff member can receive an appeal and record details in our appeals review system.

Appeals are dealt with professionally and with confidentiality. The staff member who made the original decision will not manage the appeal.

Your appeal will be investigated thoroughly and impartially, with detailed notes kept on file.

We aim to resolve appeals within 21 days. If more time is required to complete an investigation, we will advise you of the anticipated date of resolution and any reasons for the delay.

You will receive written notification of the outcome of your appeal.

What if I Disagree?

You have the right to lodge a second tier appeal with the Housing Appeals Committee (HAC), an independent agency which deals with appeals from people who dispute decisions made by social housing providers.

The HAC will seek information from all parties and review how the original decision was made to ensure guidelines, policies and processes have been followed.

Call the HAC on 1800 629 794 or visit their website www.hac.nsw.gov.au
